(d) what is the reaction of Government with regard thereto?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE (SHRI S.B.P.B.K. SATYANARAYANA RAO): (a) to (d) It is primarily the responsibility of the State Government concerned to undertake relief measures, in the wake of natural calamities, from the assistance provided to them under Calamity Relief Fund (CRF), in accordance with the guidelines issued to them from time to time. The Comptroller and Auditor General of India, in the Report for the year ended March, 1998, has brought out irregularities like diversion of funds, expenditure in excess of norms, misappropriation and embezzlement committed by some States in the disbursal of assistance provided to them under CRF. These have been brought to the notice of the State Government concerned for suitable necessary action, as the expenditure out of CRF is controlled by the respective State Governments.
